LAST TIME TODAY

Allies' Official War Film

You Enjoy the Privileges Accorded Very Few-That of Seeing the War With Government Sanction

-Democracy's Struggle With Autocracy

Also HERBERTRA WLINSON in "Smashing Through"

It's Daring, Thrilling and Full of Action And Outing-Chester Travelogue Together With Toto Comedy.

SOME PROGRAM, AND YOU'LL ENJOY IT!

Ogden Theatre

From 2 to 11 p. m. 5c a SOON—BESSIE BARRISCALE in "PATRIOTISM"

HEYWOOD CHARGES, FILED WITH GOVERNOR, ARE SIGNED BY MANY PROMINENT MEN

wood chairman of the Ogden City exemption board, which have long been have to see Judge Agee, chairman of of the drafted men, are exhibited, to that Mr. Heywood has paraded himawaited at the governor's office, were the legal advisory board. filed Saturday evening. "Tempera-mentally unfit" for the position is the description of Heywood by the eighteen prominent Ogden men who make up the protestants' committee. Stacks of affidavits from men who have been drafted for the army, statements from relatives, the personal letter of the committee and other evidence are contained in the charges which have been made in an effort to unseat Heywood! from his position.

Some of those who signed the petition had made personal visits to the that they had been denied an opporgovernor in his office about two weeks tunity to do this." ago and protested verbally against the retention of Mr. Heywood in his present office. They were told to submit formal written charges. To show that plained that she had been dependent politics are not mixed in the affair on her son since he was 16 years old. each signer of the petition gave his Mr. Heywood had told them that he business connections and his political could do nothing for them. On exam faith. A notable fact is that most of ination the members of the legal adthe signers are Republicans, members of the party of which Heywood is an arose entirely from defects in filling avowed supporter. out the questionnaire, and an affidavit the letter to the governor were in visory board in a letter to the draft many forms. One is from fellow board, recommended that the boy be workers in connection with the exe- reinstated in the deferred class. cution of the selective service laws. the permanent members of the legal whose husband had filled out his quesadvisory board at Ogden, A. W. Agee, tionnaire in Colorado, and had written judge of the second district court. J. to her to file a supporting affidavit ment in this city affecting the opera-marily denied the claims and placed tion of the draft law which, we be-these men in class I. And in one inernor in which the relations between she would be informed when the questhe advisory and the selective service tionnaire arrived, but was not, and the boards are explained, and accompany husband was placed in class I because ing it are copies of correspondence of the lack of the supporting affidavit between the two boards.

Many Affidavits

The advisory board explains that at board continue the request of the state draft headquarters in Salt Lake City it acted as did other legal advisory boards in go-not on their face appear sufficient. who stated that they had been to see board, about the matter, and had been cation, which contained names of per-informed by him that neither he nor sons who had not been recommended

Satisfaction

What a big word is "satisfaction" in the thought of the modern merchant, who knows that around his customers' satisfaction, lies his business suc-

"Always to please the customer" - which thought we have uppermost in bur minds at all times-covers a multitude of things. We must show the new things first. We must serve you in a conscientious way every time you come to our stere that will make you glad you statement in every one of our advertisements tells the truth and nothing but the truth-all these things and many more we know we must do to win and hold your confidence and good

And all these things we have in mind at all times and we urge you to come to this store in as critical an attitude as you may, and we are sure you will efer's husband was placed in class I because The members of the legal advisory Conduct Insulting "Other registrants declared that when they went to Mr. Heywood to its ing over the questionnaires of the reg- learn why they had been reclassified, ernment in this crists, and it is with Lake City, notwithstanding the latter properly classified. It recommended the matter, and that they would have have felt compelled to call attention times greater than Ogden. to see Judge Agee, and in some in-Some of these were insulting toward them.

Denied Opportunity

feebled mother, 72 years old, who ex-

Another case was that of a wife ad been promised that

The letter continues because the supporting affidavits did became so apparent to us that he was It is the attitude of the legal ad-sibility for his sibility for his own actions in making visory board that in each case where the reclassifications onto us, with the reclassification was protested, the evident purpose of creating a prejumatter should have been investigated dice against their board among regisby the local draft board. Instead, the trants and their relatives and friends, members of the advisory board say, that we addressed to him a letter in that the committee came to the de to the loss of time and inconvenience soon found ourselves besieged the nature of a protest, a copy of which with registrants and their dependents, is attached. A list of registrants pur-Mr. Heywood, chairman of the local by this board was given out for publi-

by us for reclassification U. S. Agent Intervenes

The incident of intervention by a federal agent, referred to in the charges made by the committee, is ated in an affidavit by T. H. Blackburn, who was sergeant of police in to police station the sergeant queshappened to be in Ogden, and he elidered up for physical examination. He was persistent in pressing his case before Mr. Heywood, with the result that he was ordered to leave the office. He said: "I will not be examined until came and want to come again you have read my questionnaire," and -we must be careful that every Mr. Heywood called for the officer.

Reading and Blackburn took the Hollander to Mr. Heywood, and there Reading brought out the fact that the said the young man had refused to be examined, and that he ment he was insubordinate and must be treated as order was not rescinded. Reading then officer, in Sait Lake City, with the result that Mr. Bone ordered that Zonleave highly pleased in every dervan be released from custody. Officer Goes Surity. arrest Harold Stone, son of E.

Insulted Boy Killed Byron C. Hill was told "in a sarcasthree months' postponement of his in- do so. duction into the service on the ground

Harry Baker, Hollander, told of the fforts of his two brothers to get into They were told of an members of the board infantry. artillery call, but not until they went o Salt Lake did they learn they could ordered the imprisonment join the army as infantrymen. of them, Herman, has been killed, and stance his action in this regard was so the other, Peter L. Baker, has been arbitrary that a federal officer referwounded in action. Harry swears that red the matter to his superior officer Heywood closed their visits to the Og- at Salt Lake City, who ordered the den board with the curse: den board with the cutse.

let's be done with them. Give them tody, notwithstanding Mr. Heywood their papers."

Mr. Heywood, according to the affi- board. davit of Johannes M. Warnaar, who and insulting manner" and was told pearing before him, stating he was too that "they," referring to Hollanders, busy, and the local board has throughwere using the Americans for doorliberty to assume Mr. Heywood's place ing before it chairman of the local board.

An affidavit signed by Isaac Shupe, Matilda Shupe and Mrs. George D. Shupe relates at length incidents connected with the transfer of George D. Shupe and Ernest Shupe from the ing with the dignity and fairness be shippards to the army, in a manner fitting this responsible position. at which they feel aggrieved.

D. Cargill, swears that her son was ments herein contained are based upgiven a list of clothing to take with on the personal experience of memhim July 2. "He spent $32 in purchas- bers of the committee, and we beg es, and when he got to Seattle he sent to submit herewith a number of sign most of the purchases back, telling her ed statements illustrating the charthat the rest were not necessary. Not Unanimous

The incident at the recent banquet wood high recommendations from the found correct under therough inves-Formal charges against A. R. Hey the local board had anything to do men drafted, receives much attention, and chairman of the Ogden City ex with the matter, and that they would and letters from M. H. Brandon, one men drafted, receives much attention, tigation did not represent the unanimous opinion of the draftees. The letter says:

"The writer stands ready to produce of his connection with this work. 'Of course, the only thing that we could do was to explain to these par. on proper notice a petition signed by ties that our report was merely a rec- more than half of the men of the ommendation based upon the face of twenty-eighth contingent that they the questionnaires, and that it was our wanted no such letter sent to the governor. He would also see that the peexpectation, when we made the report, that the local exemption board would tition was not signed 'Ogden City give each registrant an opportunity to draftees, but signed with the individcorrect any defect in his questionnaire, ual name and signautre of each comand supply any additional proof avail- plaining man.

Governor Bamberger spent more But these parties reported to us than an hour at his office Saturday reading over the letter and the various affidavits. He said that he desired to the curt order that he should stand Instances are cited. One is of a think them over and to read them at 'attention.' oung man who came in with his enfurther before making any statement in the matter.

Statement of Committee

Governor Simon Bamberger, Dear Sir: Pursuant to the suggestion made your excellency to the committee you on the nineteenth instant in connection with the question of the rewas prepared which was designed to organization of the local The supporting documents filed with set the matter right. The legal ad- board of Ogden City, we, the undersigned members of said committee, beg to submit the following statement.

was to bring to your attention the ex- ignored the regulations and without istence of a condition and a sentiment in this city affecting the operalieve, demands the action of the gov ernment, in order that justice may be done to those who have registered and indicated popular disapproval of the did not hardly seem to me to be the will register under the selective ser- individual alien, Mr. Heywood personvice act, and to bring about a more ally appeared before the district board equitable and harmonious administra- in opposition to the claim. In this tion of this law. The people of Ogden connection, it is an important fact that and this committee are in thorough Ogden City has been called upon to is crippled and entirely dependent on accord with the draft act and desire furnish for the last two calls a greatin every possible manner to facilitate er number of men than have he declared he had nothing to do with reluctance and sincere regret that we city has a population three or four ed on the face of the questionnaires stances parties declared that he acted classification of registrants has been nature is that in a number of instanbecause the questionnaires were not in themselves complete, and others seems to have been arbitrary, and it task of these boards is a difficult and an sent men to the cantonments who thankless one at best, and that It were found by the examining physicwould be manifestly unfair and un- ians to be disqualified for general mitpatriotic to criticize the men wha have itary service and who were rejected been called to render this service un- on arrival at the camp, with the result less the fault were flagrant and the that the government has been put to result thereof seriously harmful, and the expense of transporting these men cision that this situation, which has incident thereto thus far been borne in silence, was inhas been taken.

Walter Richey, and Dr. H. W. Nelson, duct. Mr. Heywood being the Chairman, And while there are officially the requisite it is desired to secure information connumber of members upon the bdard, it cerning the relations of the local board have a family of three little babies to is the experience of those who have and the district board of Utah, that take care of." With this he turned to followed the conduct of the board that an inquiry be directed to the district me and in a way entirely out of the January last. He told of the arrest of Mr. Heywood that there might as well peals allowed, and generally Mr. "What have you got, a family made be but one member. Dr. Nelson has heywood's attitude toward the appeal up for the occasion?" After controlling not given his attention to the work board. Heywood. When the man was brought of classification of registrants, other tioned him, with the result that he did ness, and has been in attendance upon not think he had been dealt with fair the deliberations of the board only on if his story was true. He called infrequent occasions, Mr. Richey was in Bert Reading, a special investigator city recorder of Ogden at the time of for the department of justice, who his appointment, and we understand cited the fact that Zondervan had on that account. That office was apwas recommended to the draft board made out his questionnaire without le-pointive. An appreciation of these gal help, with the result that, in spite circumstances is necessary to a full of his dependent mother, he was or understanding of the condition which exists with reference to this board.

"3 .- As a result of this condition in the important matter of the classification and selection of men for service in the army there has been "one man" action, and this has been of the most arbitrary character.

"The young men who are being called to the service and those who have questionnaire had not been signed and claims for deferment are entitled to the proper officials worn to. When questioned by the feel that they have been kindly and department of justice man about this, considerately dealt with and should be mayor, according to Blackburn, spared all ungentlemanly, unfair and embittering treatment. Ogden citizens have not received the consideration to which they were entitled. On

Pingree National bank general manthat he had been re-classified and the Bert slips out of the window and posembittering treatment. zens have not received the considersuch. He ordered that he be placed the contrary, Mr. Heywood has as jail. Reading demurred, but the sumed a dictatorial, high-handed attitude and has subjected registrants telephoned to Leon Bone, his superior and persons claiming dependency, and others visiting the office for the purpose of securing information to sar castic, slurring and humiliating com-

Blackburn also told of the order to "Persons who have asked as to what Republican. The Harold Stone, son of E. D. their dependents would do in case the Republican. Carl Zeim ments and open insults. Stone, a mail carrier, 391 Twenty-first registrant was drafted have been re-Stone had appealed ferred to the sanitarium and the Red den Packing & Provision Co.; Repubhis case to the district board on the Cross for relief, and in one instance lican, ground of a dependent wife. He was a mother of an infant was told that C.

old, according to the affidavit, that somebody would buy the milk for her er he did not appear for induction to suggest a different consideration of and was ordered arrested. It was not their claims, he has invited them to until Blackburn went his personal take his place as chairman of the Whittier Canning company; Republi-surety that he would appear that Stone board. He has told registrants who can. was released to spend his last night in ogden at home instead of in jail. Stone went to camp, but, Blackburn is indate and later advised them he just formed, was released after eight told them that to scare them, and he has personally attempted to coerce men in deferred classes to relinquish their claims and has made unpleasant manner" that he could not get a comments to them on their refusal to

Insulting Remarks. 'Insulting remarks relating to the eligion of registrants have been suffered by persons appearing before

"Mr. Heywood has also summarily One trants without cause and in one inrelease of the young man from cus-Hollanders again aroused the ire of and held subject to the order of the

"In numerous cases he has refused says he was treated in an "offensive to listen to the claims of persons apout its activity acted without 'ormai He was also told he was at hearing in practically all matters com-

These indignities have been numerous and the entire attitude and conduct of Mr. Heywood towards per sons having business before the local board have been entirely out of keep

Many specific instances have been Mrs. A. D. Cargill, mother of Leroy related to us and some of the stateacter of treatment that has been accorded registrants and persons appearing before this board to bear our when a letter to Governor Bamberger the accusations which we make signed by Frank Smyth, W. T. Green against Mr. Heywood, all of which we are confident will be supported and

"It is notorious in the community show that the letter to the governor self at the head of the draft contingents called for service and in various ways has sought notoriety by reason

"He has assumed to give the contingents what he terms their first lesson in military training, and it is ed the nien to line up and at the command to stand at 'attention'; and one of the number, a foreigner, apparently failing to understand, or being diffident, did not respond promptly to the command, whereupon Mr. Heywood seized him by the shoulders and jerked him to a standing position, with

"i.-The local board has, in a number of cases, assumed to grant registrants in class 1 deferment on ag ricultural and industrial grounds, without placing the registrants in deferred classes and without referring the claims to the district poard and likewise perso is claiming deferment on the ground of dependency have been left in class 1 and have been advised that they would not be called. Also, in the treatment of aliens who claimed exemption on the ground that they were the subjects of peutral na-"1. The purpose of the committee tions, Mr. Heyword has persistently hearing or shoving of any kind sum marily denied the claims and placed apparently because the circumstances

"5.-Another complaint of a serious conducted by the Local Board of Og- ces Mr. Heywood his disregarded the porting to have have been reclassified tolerable and justified the step that relations between the local board and the legal advisory board have not been 2. The Local Board of Ogden is as pleasant and harmonious as they composed of Mr. A. R. Heywood, Mr. should be, due to Mr. Heywood's con-

"7.-We beg also to suggest that if it is dominated to such an extent by board concerning the number of ap harmony with the occasion, he said, committee fairly reflects the sentithe investigation by the government "A few days later, I received of the conditions herein outlined and other classification card signed the sentiment of the people, and the Walter E. Richey, showing me that I members of the committee shall be had been placed in Class 4. pleased to co-operate in every way possible with the government in bringing to light all available information in Ogden to get a release to go to the bearing upon these matters, so that ship yards. Mr. Richey informed him signal from his sweetheart, who is a fair and full understanding and ap-

The signers of the charges are as "Yes." follows Dr. H. M. Rowe, capitalist and kinds of questions regarding himself to clope with this man, and when she publican

club and cashier of Ogden Savings were leaving, which was in about ten promptly turned over bank; Republican. Albert Scowcroft, vice president of

Carl Zeimer, vice president of Og-

C. J. Humphris, contractor and builder: Democrat

he need not go with the contingent baby.

"When registrants have attempted chairman of the board of county commissioners: Democrat J. E. Wright, manager of Wright

> W. J. Parker, vice president of Utah National bank, canner and state sen ator; Democrat.

Arthur Woolley, attorney; Republi-W. H. Williams, president of Shupe-Williams Candy Co., and president of the board of education; Democrat. P. T. Wright, general manager of W. H. Wright & Sons company; Republican.

A. G. Fell, vice president of Commercial National bank: Republican. Ezra Richardson, general manager of Ogden Wholesale Grocery Co.; Re-

W. H. Harris, general manager of Ogden Paint, Oil & Glass Co.; Repub-

J. M. Forristall, real estate and insurance; Republican. David O. McKay, apostle of the Mor-mon church; Republican.

AFFIDAVITS.

Edward L. Campbell Edward A. Campbell, being first duly worn deposes and says:

"That he is a married man, having een married on the 28th day of July

That on returning his questionnaire deferred classification. That he was examined as to his physical condition by one of the medical officers of the said Local Board, and was passed upon by the said physician as being normal all respects. That in truth and in fact at the time of his said examination, affiant was suffering from broken long arches and rigid flat feet which made him lame to such an extent that he could not walk fast, and halting step was very noticeable That he was notified to leave in the draft on the 2th day of July, 1918, by he said Local Board.

"That affiant thereupon went to the office of the said Local Board and called the attention of Mr. A. R. Hey wood, Chairman of the said Local Board, to his said condition, and told him that afifant was willing and desired to enter the military service, but that affiant was satisfied he would not be accepted for service on account of his said broken arches and rigid flat feet. That Mr. Heywood curtly told affiant he might be re-examined if he wanted to, and turned away. That affiant made no further effort to wave his said condition established, and left with the said draft contingent for Camp Lewis. That affiant arrived a Camp Lewis on the 27th day of July 1918, and left in the evening of the 31st of July, 1918, and returned to Ogden

That it was a matter of jest among the men and officers at Camp Lewis that affiant should have been sent and affiant was subjected to jeers and laughter of men in the line when af fiant attempted to march in line, his said crippled condition being so apparent. That when affiant attempted to drill he was ordered off of the drill was unable in any manner to keep up or perform the military maneuvers.

That his condition was equally as bad when he appeared before Mr. Heywood, as aforesaid, as when he arrived at Camp Lewis."

George A. Bergstrom's Affidavit. George A. Bergstrom made affidavit

s follows After turning in my questionnaire, s the government had requested all those who had registered to do, I received a classification card from the local board of Ogden city, showing me that I was placed in Class 3-B. correct clasification, according to my questionnaire, as I stated I had three little motherless children to take care of and a good old mother over 62, who me for support, and has been for some time.

"I went to Judge Reeder, who helped me to make out my questionnaire, and asked his advice-if he thought I ought to appeal the decision of the Knowing my condition to be board. such as I stated, he advised me to. "So following that advice, I went to the local board to appeal my case. Mr. Heywood met me at the counter 'Well, what do you want?" he said 'I want to appeal the decision made by the local board, on the advice of Judge Reeder," I said. "Let me see your card," he said none too kindly This I did, taking it out of my pocket and handing it to him. "Well, what do you want?" he said, after looking it "6.—We understand, also, that the satisfied?" This sounded to my ears rather harsh, for I only wanted what I was entitled to. "Well, Mr. Hey-wood," I said, "I don't believe the board has been fair. They have only classified me according to my mother. who is dependent upon me, and have not taken into consideration that I myself the best I could, I answered "8.—On the whole, we believe the him that if he did not believe the ommittee fairly reflects the senti-statements I made in my question-ment of the people of Ogden in the naire, why didn't he investigate as I statement that the community is en- understood that he had men in the titled to a reorganization of the local office for the purpose. With that he board and that by reason of his barsn, turned and walked to the file. Finding inconsiderate and arbitrary attitude in my questionnaire where it had been dealing with persons coming before filed away, he looked it over carefulhim, Mr. Heywood has shown himself ly, and then grudgingly said, "Well, tempermentally unfit for this import- you are entitled to Class 4. You can The committee invites appeal it if you want to." This I did. "A few days later, I received an-

> Sneered at Polygamist. Ephriam Poulter went to the board ager of the Geo. A. Lowe Co.; Re- same day received a card stating he ing as the husband, whom the willunublican.

Was in Class 1 and to be ready to lover has never seen, pulls a bluff, and demands the jewels, which are days.

John Scowcroft & Sons company, Rego but went to Heywood and Richey to return to the house and take good publican.

go but went to Heywood and Richey to return to the house and take good several times to try and get a month care of little Joey, and then we see W. D. Brown, commission merchant off to straighten up his business and him sending two telegrams, one adget some of his outstanding money for dressed to the husband from the wife, insurance written. They wouldn't give asking him to return and one to the

he had not been treated right by the Martin P. Brown, fruitgrower and board and that he hadn't had a square

MRS. EPHRIAM POULTER, (Signed)

'MRS. ALICE POULTER (Mother) Wm. Ryan's Affidavit.
"I. William Ryan, being first duly sworn, depose and say: That I am a resident of Ogden, Utah, my address being, 2045 Jefferson avenue, and that years of age, married and have one child, thirteen months old. That originally I was put in Class 4-A; that last June there was a call from the Navy department of the United States government for men, and that I en class boilermaker and went to Pugo Sounds Navy yards and entered upon the work there of manufacturing tor pedo tubes.

"While in this employment, night foreman of the Navy yard told me to turn in my classification card, which I did. This was about July 1216. About two weeks later, the command notified me that he had notified Mr. A R. Heywood of Ogden City, Draf board, that my services were urgently needed at the Puget Sounds Nav yards, and for this reason he would not put me in the emergency fleet.

"Mr. Heywood returned this notifi cation with a notation on same to the effect that I was called for the draft August 26th, and upon my being notified of this, I immediately quit work at the Puget Sounds Navy yards and to the said local board he did not claim came back to Ogden and called on Mr. Heywood, on or about August 19th 1918, with my wife and baby

'As I walked into the office, he ask ed 'Whose family is this?' I replied, 'I is mine.' I told him that I understood that I was reclassified and was called to go on August 26th. He inquired my name and upon my giving same to him he said, 'Yes.' I then asked him why he did not notify me that I had been reclassified and he replied, 'they make errors everywhere. I told him that is this case I did not think they should make any errors as I had been put to considerable expense (about $34) in coming down here. I told Mr. Heywood that I wanted to appeal to the distric board. He made a notation to that ef fect on my questionnaire.

"About this time my wife told Ms Heywood that she could not pass doctor's examination for insurance and that $30 a month would not be sufficient to keep her and the babythat the baby cost her $1.50 a week for milk, and Mr. Heywood replied that somebody would buy her the milk

ROLE OF SEERESS GIVES MAE MARSH "SHIVERS"

Playing the role of an Oriental clairvoyant was not without discomforts for Mac Marsh, the delightful field by the commanding officer, and Goldwyn star, who had previously never felt the slightest uneasiness in the scores of parts she has been called upon to portary. Work in the studio and on location has always been so much play for her, but chanting weird neantations in the garb of an Egypt ian secress, as she does in the lates Money Goldwyn Picture. which comes to the Ogden Theatre

Tuasday, got on her nerves, she said 'Being chased by a giant negro, as was in 'The Birth of a Nation,' was child's play compared with the feeling that came over me in my first ex-perience in the play as an Egyptian clairvoyant," remarked Miss Marsh

"It all seemed so weird, and, though never for a moment forgot that it was all acting. I must confess it got on my nerves at first. The weird surroundings, the dimly lighted halls and the sinister-looking Hindus about the place gave me moments of uneasiness, but soon I was myself again and found much that was pleasing in the role, for you know, I've always wanted to play such a part.

EL MONTE

Regular meeting and opening of year's work tonight at 8. All members F. E. NICHOLS, Sec'y. 7678

AT UTAH THEATRE

We've had an epidemic of crook plays lately from various producers and some of them have been good, but it seems that "Boston Blackie's Little Pal" at the Utah today has a little edge on most of them, because in addition to having the mystery suspense stuff nicely developed, Direc-"Mase" Hopper has dressed up many familiar situations effectively by planting little individual incidents and some delightful romantic touches and has given us a real heart-interest wallop in the scenes between Bert and little Joey Jacobs comes down the stairs and discovers him, and they soon become very, very much attached to each other. At a risk of being caught, Bert takes the little fellow upstairs again and amuses him until he falls asleep. Just as he is about to resume work at the safe, he gets a warning that it wasn't necessary and asked stationed outside, and conceals him praisement thereof may be made by him, in a very sneering way, if he was self just as Joey's mother and her the son of Moroni Poulter Epriam said lover enter Bert learns from the con-"Yes." Richey said. "Oh, you're the versation that she is planning to take polygamist's son," and asked him all advantage of her husband's opens the safe and gives the lover her "The next morning he was informed jewels to keep until they meet later. jewels, which are Returning to his sweetheart and rehim any consideration at all and said wife from willun, telling her that he they could do nothing for him.

"Ephriam went away feeling that They pull a unique finish by fading quicker than those who seek them.

Orpheum One Night Only

WEDNESDAY, Sept. 11th The Funniest Play in the World

Laughs every minute growing into screams. NEW YORK CAST Original Production.

Prices: 50c-75c-$1-$1.50 Seat Sale Today.

COMING! FOR FOUR DAYS! Starting Sunday ORPHEUM THEATRE

"CLEOPATRA" GORGEOUS! THRILLING! DARING!

First time ever shown between Denver and Pacific Coast.

Orpheum TONIGHT AND

Big Double Feature Bill-Two Big Pictures for the Price of One

"A SOUL FOR SALE"

With Dorothy Phillpis The Best Comedy You Have Ever Seen

Played to record crowds last night-come early.

It's A Scream

EE the "Geezer of Berlin" get walleped good and plenty. See him get kicked in his what's coming to him. See the funniest farce of the year, a screaming travesty on "The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin." You'll lauxh your head off. PRICES:

. 13c Adults War Tax, 2c. Children4c War Tax, 1c.

out on Bert looking at the jewels and wondering whether or not to return them, after which they give us a title saying: "If you were 'Blackie,' how would you decide? We'll let you be saving: the playwright and finish the play according to your choice,

'CLEOPATRA' COMING, A BIG SENSATION

In "Cleopatra," the magnificent William Fox film version of the passions of Egypt's vampire queen, which comes to the Orpheum for four days Ephriam was perfectly willing to lating his experience, Bert tells her Bara, who plays the siren of the Nile. starting Sunday, September 15. Theda wears fifty distinctively different cos were constantly working on Miss

Those who offer bargains get rich